

MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Social work conference to celebrate a century in Nova Scotia with welcome by Senator Wanda Thomas Bernard

HALIFAX, NS- For a century, social workers have helped Nova Scotians enhance their individual and collective well-being.

We're recognizing 100 years of social work in Nova Scotia by sharing social work stories of struggle and success from the profession's past and present as we consider the future at the 2017 NSCSW Fall Conference: A Century of Social Work in Nova Scotia.

Attendees will hear from leaders including highly regarded social worker, educator, researcher, community activist and advocate of social change Senator Wanda Thomas Bernard.

When: Saturday, October 21, 2017 – 8:30 AM - 4:15 PM
(Senator Wanda Thomas Bernard to speak at 9:00 AM)

Where: Holiday Inn, 437 Prince St, Truro, NS

Cost: $ 50 members, $75 non-members, $35 students

Register and learn more at nscswconference.org

-30-

About us: The Nova Scotia College of Social Workers (NSCSW) serves and protects Nova Scotians by effectively regulating the profession of social work. We work in solidarity with Nova Scotians to advocate for policies that improve social conditions, challenge injustice and value diversity.*

For more information and media inquiries contact:

Collette Deschenes

Promotions Coordinator

Nova Scotia College of Social Workers

902-429-7799 ext. 227

collette.deschenes@ncsw.org