

Consent Reprimand

Member: Marguerite MacGillivray

Decision Date: July 22, 2023

Consented to on: November 29, 2023

On July 22, 2023, the Complaints Committee of the Nova Scotia College of Social Workers (NSCSW) issued a reprimand with consent to Ms. Marguerite MacGillivray. On November 29, 2023, Ms. MacGillivray consented to the reprimand.

The Complaints Committee issued a reprimand with consent in accordance with the Social Work Act section 29 (2)(e), for the following reasons:

- 1) Integrity, honesty, and governability are fundamental qualities of any individual who seeks to practice as a member of the social work profession.
- 2) The College has determined that Ms. MacGillivray actions were not in keeping with this obligation when she failed to provide fulsome and accurate information regarding her employment status to the NSCSW on her 2022 renewal application.
- 3) The College has also determined that Ms. MacGillivray improperly relied upon the Colleges Code of Ethics in support of conduct that was the subject of a workplace investigation.
- 4) In addition to this reprimand, Ms. MacGillivray has consented to engage in related re-education and training.
